

Thinking

Creative Thinkers

I can get ideas when I create new things.

I can use new ideas and build on other's ideas to solve problems.

I can persevere with my ideas to make something work.

I can get new ideas and build on my skills when I follow my passions.

I can generate and share ideas that are unique to me.

Critical Thinkers

I can use my experience to make good choices.

I can ask open-ended questions to learn more.

I can develop or adapt criteria to make something work.

I can be flexible and open-minded.

I can reflect on and adjust my thinking to make decisions.
