

Behaviors for Success

Self-Awareness Ability to be personally aware and responsible	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Identify and appreciate personal attributes, skills, interests and accomplishments (and their growth over time) • Demonstrate effective work habits and organizational skills Make connections between effective work habits and success • Recognize the importance of how their personal public identity can have both positive and negative consequences
Working with others Ability to cooperatively interact with peers	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Recognize the importance of positive relationships in their lives • Recognize the need for others who can support their learning and personal growth • Share ideas, information, personal feelings, and knowledge with others • Work respectfully and constructively with others to achieve common goals • Demonstrate respect for differences in the classroom
Career Knowledge and Awareness Contributions to the classroom and to his/her learning	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Recognize the importance of learning in their lives and future careers • Identify and appreciate the roles and responsibilities of people in their schools, families, and communities • Recognize the basic skills required in a variety of jobs in the community Demonstrate safe behaviors in a variety of environments • Examine the importance of service learning and the responsibility of individuals to contribute to the community and the world • Demonstrate leadership skills through collaborative activities
Career planning Ability to set and achieve personal goals	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Set and achieve short-term and long-term realistic learning goals (define a path and monitor progress)