

Continuing Our Truth & Reconciliation Learning Journey

A follow up to the 2022 Nanaimo-Ladysmith Public Schools Curriculum Implementation Day

National Centre for Truth and Reconciliation

Based at the University of Winnipeg, the NCTR is the permanent home for all statements, documents and other materials gathered by the Truth and Reconciliation Commission. Included in the site are links to Educational links and resources.

First Nations Child & Family Caring Society

The FN-CFCS works to ensure the safety and well-being of First Nations youth and their families championing culturally based equity for First Nations children and their families so that they can grow up safely at home, be healthy, achieve their dreams, celebrate their languages and culture and be proud of who they are. Information about Jordan's Principle is available on their site.

First Nations Education Steering Committee

FNESC is policy and advocacy organization that represents and works on behalf of First Nations in British Columbia with a mandate to support First Nations students and advance First Nations education in BC. FNESC offers excellent Teacher Guides aligned with the BC curriculum as well as a database of Authentic First Peoples Resources.

94 Calls to Action

The 94 Calls to Action are actionable policy recommendations meant to aid the healing process in two ways: acknowledging the full, horrifying history of the residential school system, and creating systems to prevent these abuses from ever happening again in the future.

Kevin Lamoureux's TEDx Talks

- Truth and Reconciliation
- A Beginner's Guide to Decolonization

Read, Listen, Watch and Walk over the Summer to Continue your Learning Journey on the Land.

The NLPS community will be learning together on, from, and about the land. Join us to receive your book and access links so that we can share our learning together!

